MERCENARY.

Maudie has the softest manner,
Maudie is a perfect dear,
Yet, somehow, I do on Anner,
Anner holds her title clear
To a dandy bunch of money.
Money's what I need, you know,
Possibly,—now ain't it funny?
That is why I love her so!

ONE CENT RATE

Steamboats to Adopt This Plan of Charging For Travel

One cent a mile is the new rate to be put into operation by the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Line today.

The railroads operate on a mileage basis, usually two cents or more, and the packet men will try the same plan. Meals and berths are optional, and may or may not be purchased by the passenger.

Heretofore the packet line had a fare to various points, the fare including berth and meals.

This new rate is expected to be attractive to people who desire to make a short trip, while those going a long distance may pay mileage, berth and meals or pay the straight fare now in use.

BREWSTER'S MILLIONS.

"Brewster's Millions," the greatest comedy hit of the past year in both New York and Chicago, will be presented at The Washington Theater Saturday, December 7th, by the Cohan & Harris comedians. It is a dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's story of the same title. It is the purely farcical scenes that give "Brewster's Millions" its claim to popularity. Those who have read the story know the plot. "Matty" Brewster left a million dollars by his grandfather. With the first realization of his good fortune Brewster learns that a forgotten uncle has died and left him $7,000,000 on condition that he spend the million left by his grandfather in a year. He can't give it away—just has to spend it—and with the further condition that no one must know of this second will until the year is up. Seats on sale at 9 a. m. Thursday.

THE Third Assistant Postmaster General's report shows that during the last fiscal year 467,058 registered letters and parcels were transmitted through the mails in the state of Kentucky. This is a decrease of 36,009 as compared with the previous year. The fees amounted to $34,038. Kentucky appears to be advancing backward.

MR. BRYAN says that nine-tenths of the Republicans of this country are actually Democrats. Yet the election returns show that about two-thirds of the Democrats regularly vote the Republican ticket.—Kansas City Star.

THE matter of establishing postal savings banks is a progressive move strongly advocated by Postmaster General Myer. It would do much toward strengthening the resources of the country and millions of dollars would thus practically be under direct Government control, as each postal bank, would in effect, be a little sub-treasury in itself and would be the depository of the money now hoarded in old tin cans, feminine hosiery and other strange, unknown and unfrequented places.

To give THE PUBLIC LEDGER subscribers and advertisers some idea of the enormous advance in the price of print paper we have only to quote that paper has been down to $1.87 per hundred, freight added, in Cedar Rapids, and now it is $3 per hundred F. O. B. Cincinnati. This is over 100 per cent. increase in this one item of paper, and as THE PUBLIC LEDGER, newspaper and Printery, uses some 20,000 pounds of raw paper a year, it may well be understood that we are paying for 10,000 pounds of paper now that we got for nothing a few years ago. Notwithstanding this, the subscription and advertising rates remain the same that they were when paper was cheap.

POWERS' JURY

Will Visit the Scene of the Goebel Murder Today—James Howard Taken to Georgetown

James Howard was taken to Georgetown yesterday for consultation by the defense of Caleb Powers. The jury, it has been agreed, will be taken to Frankfort today to view the scene of the Goebel tragedy.

Robert Noaks, who lived at Corbin, Ky., in 1900, and who now resides in Illinois, is a star witness for the Commonwealth, and was placed on the witness stand yesterday morning.

The defense attorney asked witness if he was not arrested in Virginia, charged with conspiracy and of having been told by Commonwealth Attorney Franklin that the grand jury did not indict him. He said Charles Flory or one of the Powers brothers asked him to organize a body of men and go to Frankfort to intimidate the election commissioners. He took sixty-five men and allowed them to scatter about the grounds. "We were instructed to see that the Republicans got justice or hang the officials, and I told the men this," said Noaks.

He showed the master roll, which was placed in evidence. He said these were the most desperate men he could find.

Simplicity's Saving Grace.
"I like simplicity," said Senator Beveridge. "Simplicity saves us a lot of trouble, too."

"Two men met in front of the Blank hotel the other day and fell into political argument. They were ordinary, everyday sort of men, but one of them had an extraordinary flow of polysyllabic language. He talked half an hour, and his companion listened in a daze.

"And now," the speaker pompously concluded, "perhaps you will coincide with me?"

"The other's face brightened up.
"Why, yes; thanks, old man," he answered heartily, moving toward the barroom door. "I don't care if I do."

Privileges of Old Age.

Old age has its drawbacks, but it has also its privileges. Not the least of these is leisure; not idleness, for that lie wretchedness and disintegration—but freedom from the stress of unloved rivalry, and opportunity for the calm and moderate pursuit of congenital occupation. With its advent one may doff the armor, but not the apron, and choosing one's bench, work, not as a slave, but as a master.—Senator William P. Frye, In the Circle.

Voice of Protest.

"Who is that screaming so?" asked the Inveterate Shopper of the shop girl who had just come out of the room whence issued the screams.

"It's a shoplifter," the girl replied. "She is declaring her innocence." "And is she innocent?" queried the Inveterate Shopper.

"They had only unraveled ten yards of silk from her person when I left," the shop girl replied.

HAYWOOD LECTURES.

FIRST OF THE SERIES.

The lecture of Dr. A. N. Ellis Monday evening was listened to with intense interest from start to finish, and we regret that newspaper type cannot convey to the reader a vivid conception of the varied character of the discussion and the effect it produced. Tracing the origin of the hospital in the earliest times, and bringing it down to the day of Florence Nightingale, when, under the patronage of Queen Victoria, it took its present form, and interpersing his discourse with instructive, but timely anecdotes and aphorisms, he described the great London hospitals in chronological order, beginning with old St. Bartholomew's and closing with St. Thomas' and Guy's, the latter socially famous for its order of sisterhood derived chiefly from the highest ranks and composed almost wholly of daughters of the nobility and gentry. His observations in the anatomical museums of these hospitals had a peculiar interest for the historical student. We enjoin the beautiful passage with which the lecturer closed:

"Beautiful old Haywood has always been a holy place. For many long years, dedicated to religion and education, from it have flown streams that have enlightened and benefited our people. It is now set forever aside for a bane for the sick and an abiding place for instruction in the healing art. In closing these few hurried remarks, let me say that no one can succeed as a physician or a nurse (for one is the hand maid of the other) without going heart and soul into the work."

"Beautifull old Haywood has always been a holy place. For many long years, dedicated to religion and education, from it have flown streams that have enlightened and benefited our people. It is now set forever aside for a bane for the sick and an abiding place for instruction in the healing art. In closing these few hurried remarks, let me say that no one can succeed as a physician or a nurse (for one is the hand maid of the other) without going heart and soul into the work."

"Medicine is a jealous mistress and tolerates no rivals or side issues."

"There must be health, education, natural aptitude, perseverance, enthusiasm and a belief in humanity and trust in the future."

"All hall to old Haywood!"

"Like a city set upon a hill, her light cannot be hidden. May she ever spread her white wings to the East and the West, brooding and caring for our stricken ones. And as long as the beautiful river shall wind her majestic flow amid the green hills and rich lands of this God-given border land, may the name and form of Mary Peale Wilson be enshrined in our hearts."

At Lexington Monday 100,000 pounds of tobacco were disposed of at from 7 to 14 cents.

RUSSELL TERMINALS

May Be Abandoned by the C. and O. and Another Place Selected as End of Division

Portsmouth Blade.

The story that the C. and O. people intend abandoning Russell as the end of the division for freight trains is not easy to put down. It has bobbed up again, this time in the shape of a clipping from a Hinton paper.

The spot chosen, according to the report, is to be midway between Cincinnati and Huntington, and while no names are mentioned, this fact is suggestive.

If any one will take a tape line and measure the distance between Cincinnati and Huntington, he will find that the half way point will fall just about South Portsmouth.

Of course that proposition would please South Portsmouth, and North Portsmouth even better.

The company has never been satisfied with Russell as a site for terminals, and it was positively stated at one time that Russell was to be abandoned.

Hard to attend to household duties With a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back, And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys. Here is a Mayville woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Mayville, Ky., says:

In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy. I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood and in my efforts to find a cure tried every medicine I could find but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They proved just the remedy I needed. They went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of old trouble."

THE NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Not only sells the BEST and BROADEST contract, but returns LARGER dividends and therefore insures at a LOW set cost. The new 1907 policy of THE NORTHWESTERN is a marvel of completeness. It covers as many of life's contingencies, probable or possible, as can be met by money. It is like a will, except that it provides the estate with a valuable insurance contract. Life and Cash values. It provides Automatic Paid-up or Extended Insurance, and for Reinstatement at any time within FIVE YEARS after lapse.

NO OTHER company offers as many or as varied OPTIONS of Settlement, under ANY or ALL conditions, as does THE NORTHWESTERN offers under its ONE POLICY.

OUR MARTYR PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.
(An impassioned appeal to the Sixtieth American Congress)

I.
Three martyrs mark bereavements,
The horror spreads out thiny;
Three removals bald's achievements,
Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley.
The martyrs speak from cryptic walls,
Drive outlaws out, their presence galls,
Aye, drown them in Niagara Falls.
The martyrs' prayers, not party walls,
O, safeguard life else Freedom fails!

II.
The anarchists blight Arcady,
Congress knows that right well;
From New Jersey to Nevada,
Bandits stalk on mission feli.
The problem grave and peril dire,
Drive outlaws out, not driving tire,
Aye, burn them in Mount Pisgah's fire.
The martyrs' prayers to Congress Halls—
O, safeguard life else Suffrage stalls!

III.
O, Congress Hails, pray remember,
Bandits are most pestilent;
First enactment for December,
Safeguard for the President.
Good people mourn the martyrs slain,
Drive outlaws out, the duty plain,
Aye, ban them and their bloody reign.
The martyrs' prayers for action wise,
O, safeguard life else Justice die!

—CAPT. DAVID A. MURPHY.
